Creative Marketing Lead

I build creative, social, and performance as one system.

Creative marketing lead with 10+ years across brand, social, content, motion, UI/UX, and performance. I connect concept, production, channel logic, reporting, and the feedback loop after launch. Since 2024, I have run an independent creative systems practice, rebuilding my workflow around AI-assisted production across brand, content, UI, motion, and campaign development.

08 / POSITIONING

The value is not isolated breadth. It is the ability to connect the idea, the production system, the channel behavior, and the feedback loop after launch.

09 / BRAND LOGIC

Brand only works when it becomes a system; positioning, creative direction, production rhythm, channel behavior, and reporting that sharpens the next round.
